Getting to know Moldovan Wines with Irina and Aliona

White wines:

Alb de Onitcani £17 / 12.8% Novak Winery

Alb de Onitcani is made from Moldovan white grape variety Alb de Onitcani. The wine is a straw colour with greenish notes; with complex aromas of white flowers, green apples and fine notes of yellow fruits. Refined freshness with playing sourness in the taste.

Florica £16 /12.4% Novak Winery

White wine produced from the indigenous grape variety Florica harvested manually from the South part of Moldova. The wine is a greenish colour with shades of straw. Complex aroma of tropical flowers, with fine shades of apricot. Taste – light and crunchy with a pleasant aftertaste.

Alb de Onitcani & Florica blend £23 / 14% Novak Winery

A wine made from indigenous white grape varieties, Florica and Alb de Onitcani. In the new blend the floral-fruity notes of both varieties are combined into something more and creates a perfectly balanced wine and unique in aromas. The wine has a greenish colour with golden hues with complex aroma of exotic fruits, ripe melon and a slight hint of vanilla. Harmonious taste, fresh, with a long, pleasant aftertaste.

Red wines:

Rara Neagra £23 / 14.4% Chateau Purcari

Rara Neagră de Purcari is an escape from everyday life – an explosion of grace and elegance embodied in the wine. The ruby color, with a pomegranate accent, is accompanied by a complex aroma with accents of chocolate and plum. The full taste is velvety with hints of dried fruits and vanilla and a smooth fine oak aftertaste.

Saperavi £28 / 14% Chateau Purcari

Saperavi de Purcari Limited Edition is a multi gold and silver medal winner with a strong personality. The wine is an intense ruby red with purple reflections reveals explosive aromas of plum and well-ripened fruit. An exceptional aroma rich wine.

Rara Neagra & Cabernet Sauvignon blend £17/ 13% Domeniile Cuza

Ruby-red with intense aromas of berries, plums and black cherries, with slight hints of skin and sweet spices. The taste is dry, with firm and velvety tannins that balance the fresh acidity. The medium-long finish allows lingering fruitiness.
